Art – Royal Academy – Culture
Taste - Morocco – Restaurant

LEADER: Stephanie Wilkinson

Catch this exciting exhibition of art that reveals the full breadth of a movement forever associated with the boundless creative energy of 1950s New York. Featuring Pollock, Rothko, Still, de Kooning, Newman, Kline, Smith, Guston and Gorky

We'll travel by train together to Waterloo and take the Bakerloo line to Piccadilly Station. From there it's a 6 minute walk to the Royal Academy. Remember to bring a printout of your exhibition booking. From 11am walk around this exciting exhibition at your own pace. At around 12 o'clock, we'll assemble again in the RA foyer to walk together to our Moroccan lunch venue - Momo Café in Heddon Street, a few streets away. As you step inside Momo's you are transported into an authentic Moroccan world with tiled floor, patterned cushions, beaten copper tray tables and beautiful coloured glass lamps (available to purchase). The lunch menu includes delicious hot and cold mezze (cheese, prawn, chicken, spinach etc) hot wraps and other warming dishes like chicken tagine. Wash down with hot mint tea or other refreshments. Approximate cost £10 pp.
