EASTER MONDAY WALK 22 APR 19

From Teddington Lock we will cross the river and head for Ham Common via Lock Road. From Ham Common we will turn left down a bridleway and then follow footpaths and bridleways past the back of Ham House and Ham Polo Ground. After a very short section along the pavement of Petersham Road, we turn down to the river past Petersham Meadows and along to The White Cross pub on Richmond riverside. <http://thewhitecrossrichmond.com/> if you want to check the menu!

Here we will break for lunch at approximately midday, and we can choose whether to eat at this pub (unfortunately we can't book to sit together, as it's Bank Holiday) or elsewhere in Richmond. The riverside and Richmond Green are both picnic-friendly, weather permitting! There is the opportunity for people to leave the walk here, if they wish – but please do tell the leader!

After lunch we will reassemble at The White Cross at 1.45 p.m. and walk back to Teddington along the river, arriving back at Teddington Lock around 3 p.m.

The morning section of the walk is just over 3 miles, and the afternoon part is about 3.5 miles.
